

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was a former Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Narcotics in San Francisco from October 1956 until he resigned in January 1960 to take a position with the U.S. Marshals Service in Los Angeles. He is presently retired from Government service and is the manager of the [REDACTED]

On Thursday, March 29, 1979, I called [REDACTED] at his place of employment and explained the purpose of my call. [REDACTED] stated he had been aware of the existence of the safe house on Chestnut Street; however, had no knowledge of CIA activity or participation in the safe house, nor is he aware of any drug testing activities in any of the safe houses in San Francisco. Like most people we talked to, [REDACTED] stated that Ira Feldman, if anyone, would have knowledge as to the various activities in the safe houses in San Francisco.
