ROBINSON JEFFERS, ANNUAL MEETING IN CARMEL TO SHARE HIS POETRY AND IDEAS, OCT. 3, 1987

"Western civilization coming to an end. Revolutionary discoveries in almost every area of thought and expression, along with the violent upheaval of World War I, rendered inadequate many of the assumptions about life engendered by the Greco-Roman/Judeo Christian tradition. People believed tradition would have to be abandoned, or at least transcended, in order for them to recover AUTHENTICITY AND TRUTH." "One must surrender one's presumptions and look at complete simplicity".
