"AQUARIAN AUTHOR COLIN WILSON ADMITS 'NEW AGE' MOVEMENT IS NAZI" EIR 11/27/87

"ALEISTER CROWLEY, THE NATURE OF THE BEAST: THE LIFE AND IDEAS OF THE WICKEDEST MAN IN THE WORLD" Colin Wilson, Aquairian Press, Wellingborough, Northamptonshire. 1987

Crowley's "Do what thou wilt" injunction led to Hell's Angels, Charles Mansons. Crowley wrote in "Magick in Theory and Practice", recommendations for sacrificing a young male child to achieve best magical results. A footnote was added that he himself had done so about 150 times a year between 1912 and 1928".

Crowley lecture in 1930 to the Poetry Society at Oxford and talked about Gilles de Rais, 15th century child murderer, whom Crowley described as a "practitioner of black magic".

Crowley's mother referred to him as THE BEAST, #666. Colin Wilson fails to report the "CHURCH OF SATAN", (Micheael Aquino, US Defense Dept.) has adopted CROWLEY'S "Do what thou wilt" as it's motto.
